New City Council Members Take Office

Mayor Daniel Guerrero and three City Council Members took their oaths of office Monday, November 15 following the canvass of the November 2 general and special election returns.

City Council Members sworn in were Kim Porterfield for a second three year term in Place 1, Jude Prather for a three year term in Place 2, and Shane Scott for a two year term in Place 6 to fill a vacancy.

Following the swearing in ceremony, the City Council selected Ryan Thomason, Place 5, as Mayor Pro Tempore, and Chris Jones, Place 4, as Deputy Mayor Pro Tem.

The ceremony was followed by a reception honoring outgoing Mayor Susan Narvaiz and City Council Members Gaylord Bose and John Thomaides.

Mayor Guerrero:

OATH OF OFFICE: Newly elected San Marcos Mayor Daniel Guerrero repeats the oath of office administered by Dr. Tom Sechrest, Associate Dean of the School of Management and Business at St. Edwards University, as Mayor Guerrero's family, including his grandfather, Jose Silguero, mother, Socorro Guerrero and father, Robert Guerrero, look on. Dr. Sechrest was Guerrero's professor in graduate school at St. Edward's.
